PA Chamber hires Shawn Good as government affairs director

HARRISBURG, PA – The Pennsylvania Chamber of Business and Industry today announced that Shawn Good has joined the organization as director of Government Affairs.

Good will serve as the organization's lead lobbyist on environmental and energy issues, and will also be responsible for general business advocacy issues.

Good has more than 12 years of lobbying experience, most recently working as a senior government affairs consultant with GSP Consulting, Inc. He has also held positions as director of Government Affairs for the Greater Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce and as research analyst for the House of Representatives.

Good is a graduate of Kutztown University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history.

In addition to PA Chamber President Gene Barr, the PA Chamber's Government Affairs team includes Vice President Sam Denisco and Managers Alex Halper and Alisha Wells.
